VOL. II. NO. 46. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, MAY 17-18, 1896. PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE FUTURITY OF 1896.

No matter what its value the Futurity holds first place as the American two-year-old event. Sometimes it fails—on account of the notions of owners—to get the best together. But such failures are rare. Ben Brush was absent last season. Generally the Futurity field is large and made up of the selects. The stake's value has averaged over $50,000 for eight years. The $67,675 race of 1890, which Potomac won, was the richest and that of 1892, worth $40,450 to Morcello, the poorest. The Coney Island Jockey Club estimates that the 1896 race will be worth $60,000 or $65,000. It is to be run at Sheepshead Bay, Saturday, August 19.

Here is a present statement of the Stake's condition. It closed January 2, 1894, with 920 nominations of which 169 are void. There were 212 declarations at $10; 77 at $20; 42 at $60 and 6 at $70. Thus 414 colts and fillies are still eligible. The remaining chance to get out is at $100 each, July, 15, 1896.

Of the 414 still eligible there is little general knowledge. Some 250 are in Eastern stables and have not yet raced. The same mystery is about part of the California brigade, nearly 100 strong. The balance of the entries are miscellaneous Western. The sharp figure of the lot is C. T. Patterson's good colt by Order—Victorine—Ornament, who has won all his three starts in commanding style. Ornament is a great colt with the infirmity of restlessness, which at times approaches insanity. Eugene Leigh has three in. They include Tom Smith and La Duchesse. Bill McGuigan's chance is with Moncrieth, and Jas. E. Pepper has in seven, including Meadowthorpe, and Chas. H. Smith, five: Eidolin, Oxia, Distynna, Loyaletta and King's Counsel.

The California entries are many and puzzling. Burns & Waterhouse have nine chances. Among the firm's entries are Altamax, Parthamax, Rowena B, Adam Andrew and Col. Wheeler. All but one of this lot has already won.

That royal sportsman, Marcus Daly, has twenty-eight live Futurity chances. Matt Byrnes may get one out of the band that will be a contender. J. B. Haggin has twenty-three entries, the Elmwood folks five, and Walter Hobart seven, including San Mateo, the Salvador—Iris colt, half brother to the speedy Peril, who beat Macdonough's Orestes in a $5,000 match race at Ingleside a few days ago. Orestes is eligible, too. He is W. O. B. Macdonough's Ormonde—Kissing Crust colt. If Orestes is a star his light is yet to be uncovered. Palo Alto has nine Futurity chances, all as yet unknown to the fame of the turf.

Naglee Burk, of San Jose, Cal., a good sportsman, who has sent Brioso, Bellicoso and Crescendo east, has three winners in the eligible list. They are Dolce, the sister to Crescendo, Dolore and Dura. Santa Anita has six live nominations Altivo, El Delecado, Teodolina, Rey de Angeles, Umberto and Veloz. California does not seem to have a wonder. San Mateo may be a good colt. The Baldwin lot is said to be an unusually good one. Its racing must tell.

The eastern Futurity two year olds have yet to parade. The Brookdale lot is thirty-four strong in the Futurity list. Jimmie Rowe may nava a winner among them. Mr. Belmont's Blenton nominations are seventeen in number. Hyland is a keen man with two year olds and from the Belmont band may produce a sharp Futurity candidate. The Keenes have ten chances. Lakeland may send out a contender from this half score. Most of them are English bought or English bred. The Morris brothers have five live ones in the Futurity list. None have raced as yet.

Gideon & Daly is represented by five, and David Gideon by two: Eakins, the Iroquois—

Carlotta colt, and Slow Poke. Unless an accident smotheres Eakins, he will be the Futurity favorite. The colt was wonderfully tried last fall. He was bred at Belle Meade and bought as a yearling for Gideon & Daly by Gideon for $5,600. When the partners differed and dissolved by sale, Gideon paid $12,500 for Eakins and has since declared to win the 1896 Futurity with him. Gideon is keen with Futurities. Already he has landed three and $163,575, with His Highness in 1891, The Butterflies in 1894 and Requitall in 1895.

Come what may though, the Futurity is almost certain to produce a noble race from a patrician field of large size. It is one of the events that stimulates a turf and calls out the effort of both breeders and owners of the best class.

ST. LOUIS BETTING QUARREL.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 16.—Alex Ullman, the betting ring lessee, had trouble with the book-makers before the draw-in at the Fair Grounds. He wanted to charge them enough to make up $1,600 per day unless sixteen drew in. Nine of the books, including Walters & Hayden, Geo. Bennett and other "big guns" refused to pay over $100 per day and did not book. Seven went on and there was business for twenty. President Maffitt says Ullman must let all reputable books cut in for $100 per day.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Riley Grannan is trying to get back some of his California shortage at Morris Park. So far he is shorter still.

J. J. Burke succeeds John Carter as Joe Murphy's associate in the St. Louis stand when Mr. Carter goes to Latonia.

Alfred Hennen Morris tells of a yearling filly by St. Florian, out of a sister to Russell, that girths 64 inches and is a perfect individual.

The eastern critics are full of praise for Requitall and Handspring, who have both grown and filled out to suit them. Hastings has done less well on the point of eyeability.

In spite of the recent decision of the New York courts, public handling of money is accounted an offense on the Jockey Club tracks and an arrest or two has been made.

The Eastern filly Fireside is a full sister to Sweet Faverdale, sold by "Pittsburg Phil" to Burns & Waterhouse. She is well named, being a daughter of Faverdale—Sweet Home.

Capt. J. H. Rees, who was presiding judge at Ingleside all winter, is at Memphis. He does not endorse the bad opinion of Orestes, the Ormonde colt, and considers that he will be worthy his breeding and race well over a distance of ground.

Mike Dwyer paid $10,000 for Ben Eder—all he was worth. The Fonso colt is a showy fellow. He first offered $7,500 and McGuigan asked $15,000. After sharp verbalism a compromise came. The colt was owned by Umbrella Bill's clever wife and R. C. Chambers & Co. of Hot Springs, Ark. McGuigan threatens to retire.

Tod Sloan is now under contract to Lucky Baldwin for the following stake events: At St. Louis, National Derby, Club Members' Handicap, two-year-olds, Champion Stakes; At Oakley, Oakley Derby, Diamond Stakes and the Buckeye Stakes; At Latonia, Latonia Derby, The Oaks, Sensation Stakes; At Detroit, Inter notional Derby, Campau Stakes. At Sheepshead Bay, the Futurity and Suburban Handicap; At Brooklyn, the Brooklyn Handicap. Baldwin's contract with Sloan is a liberal one, and provides for all expenses and handsome bonuses in case he lands winners. A verbal contract between Sloan and "Pittsburg Phil" also exists.

WEOLA BEATS HI HENRY.

The small amount of rain which fell yesterday morning seemed to make the track faster than before, and the speed was startling. Weola cut half a second off the State record for six furlongs, and Longdale tied the seven furlong figure. The usual Saturday crowd was out, but it was not a good day for the backers, as only two favorites won, and they were both at odds on.

The principal event was a three-quarters of a mile handicap, in which Hi Henry 122, Redskin 120, Dr. Rice 113, and Weola 90 faced the starter. Walkover was in at 93 pounds, but the stable scratched him, preferring his chances in the last race of the day at five and a half furlongs. As things turned out, it would seem as if a mistake was made, for from the manner in which the Hankins & Johnson gelding beat Weola last Wednesday he should have certainly won yesterday. Hi Henry and Redskin opened even favorites, but at starting time the latter had the call. Weola was well backed but Dr. Rice had few supporters. Dr. Rice was off in front, but Hi Henry and Weola made the running at a merry clip to the three-quarter pole, where the son of Big Henry led by a length, little Clay having to pull up Weola to prevent being forced into the rails, as Hi Henry swerved. In the stretch Weola got her head in front, and Redskin closed up. At the eighth pole Weola drew away and won handily in the fast time of 1:14, Redskin beating Hi Henry a neck for the place. Dr. Rice was twenty lengths back.

In the opening seven furlongs Cassa for once managed to get away from the post, and taking the lead on the back stretch she held it to the end, winning by a head from B F Fly Jr.

Provident was a natural favorite in the two-year-old race. Hessville made the running, little Hathersall, keeping Provident behind, till well in the stretch, when she came away and won easily.

There was no pronounced favorite in the second half of the seven furlongs, Mike Kelly and Mary L being most fancied. Mary L and Campana made the running full half way down the stretch, when Longdale came up and won easily, in 1:28 1/4, equalling the state record.

California had it all her own way in the fifth race, and Lillian E showed what a good filly she is by defeating such speedy ones as Remedy, Walkover, and May Fern in the last event.

The advance flag was dispensed with yesterday and the machine was used alone.

John Brenock, of the Forsyth track, and Hankins & Johnson, of Sheffield, will send several horses to Terre Haute, for the meeting which begins on Monday.

Geo. Carroll has arrived at Sheffield with several horses, and will race in Indiana during the rest of the season.

The Lakeside Jockey Club commences its meeting Wednesday. The programme for the first six days is out. The principal event on the opening day is the Hammond Handicap, one mile, value $600. On Saturday, May 23, the Lakeside Handicap, one mile, $1,000, will be run, the entries for which close Wednesday, May 20, and on Decoration Day the Decoration Day Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, value $1,500, will be the principal event.

A FORM BOOK OF EXCELLENCE.

From and after Monday May 18th, DAILY RACING FORM Publishing Company can deliver to known local subscribers of good class, all form charts and indexed entries by 10:30 p.m. and special messengers at a moderate cost. Only a limited number can be supplied. The form will be in leather and indexed to the time of delivery. The books will be collected and indexed in duplicate form day to day. They will cover Little Rock, Memphis, Nashville, Washington-Newport, Forsyth, Sheffield, St. Louis, Louisville, Windsor and Morris Park.

THE BURTON CAR'S MERIT.

The Burton Stock Car is the best in the world for the safety and comfort of race horses. Every car is constructed with reference to its requirements, so that horses can be unloaded and enter a race without further rest or delay. We recommend the Burton Stock Car in preference to any other. See advertisement on the last page of this paper.

Gore's Hotel is First-Class.

Gore's Fireproof Hotel is a modern establishment with every modern convenience. It is conducted on the European plan, and has a first class restaurant connected with it. Rooms can be had for $1.00 per day, with special rates by the week. Horsemen will find "Gore's" a very desirable place to live.

Cheap Kentucky Yearlings.

A few yearlings were sold Saturday last at Lexington at low prices as follows:

A Boon to Horsemen.

No race-horse man can afford to be without the C. & M. horse remedies, advertised elsewhere in this paper. Every package is sold under a guarantee to cure, or money refunded. The C. & M. solution is the most wonderful remedy known for bruises, strains, reducing inflammation and swelling immediately and quickly curing bowed tendons and strained ankles.

Brooklyn Handicap Odds.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The latest quotations on the Brooklyn Handicap show Henry of Navarre even favorite, with Clifford at 4 to 1, Counter Tenar and Sir Walter 8 to 1, Lazzarone 15, Belmar, Dorian, Hornpipe, Keenan, Lake Shore and Nanki Pooh 20 each, while Handspring is held at 30. Ben Brush is held at 75, presumably on the probability that he will not be brought back from the West in time to start in this event.

Wagtail, b. g. 3, by Wagner—Belle of Mt. Zoah, by Virgil.

B. c. 2, by Lew Weir—Ada Reese.

B. c. 2, by Riley—Modesty, by War Dance.

Ch. f. 2, by Lew Weir—Geneva.

What Racing People Need.

The Flanders card, published nightly is correct, and goes to the public convenience of printing a set of entries which is wired for the benefit of its patrons.

Clohesey & Co., of 48 and 50 Wabash avenue, can supply bookmakers with all their needs, and is a reliable and high class firm.

A GOOD HOTEL.

Patrons of the races will find the Clifton House a thoroughly satisfactory place to obtain a first-class meal, or to put up for a day or longer. Situated at Wabash Avenue and Monroe street, it is accessible from all depots and theatres.

BIG EASTERN HANDICAPS.

The Brooklyn Handicap is not run until June 4th this year, and the Suburban follows June 23d. There is less than the usual western interest in the great spring events of the East, though there are some western candidates for each. The tables below give the original entries for each race, the weight assigned and tabulates the form of each horse up to January 1st last.

*Brooklyn Handicap of 1894. †1893.

Of the original thirty-eight, four, Senator Grady, Vincitor, King Arthur II and Primrose, have been declared from the Brooklyn, and four, Domino, Vincitor, King Arthur and Claudius from the Suburban. Stowaway was rejected before weight allotment. This leaves twenty-eight eligibles for the Gravesend Handicap, and twenty-three for that at Sheepshead.

But three of the eligibles lot have performed in a winning way this year, and made records as below:

Horses.	Dist.	Wgt.	Time.	Place.	Track.
Ben Brush	1 ¾ m	117	2:07¾	Louis	Fast
Eloroy	1 m	107	1:43¾	Fors'h	Fast
Forget	¾ m	90	1:30¾	Memp	Fast

MONTANA'S 1896 RACING.

A good horse—sprinter or distance clever—can win a lot of money at the good meetings of Anaconda and Butte, Montana. The meetings will be for all sorts of horses, as the programme below shows. These are the thorough-bred stakes:

The Copper City Handicap—value, $1,500. (To be run at Anaconda, Saturday, July 4.) Handicap for all ages; entrance, $10; $50 additional for horses not declared by 4 p. m. July 4th. Guaranteed value, $1,500, of which $200 to the second and $100 to the third horse. Weights to be announced Thursday, July 2d. Winner's afterweights are announced to carry 5 pounds penalty. 1½ miles.

The Smeltermen's Handicap, Value $1,000. (To be run at Anaconda, Wednesday, July 8.) Handicap for all ages; entrance, $10; $30 additional for all horses not declared by 4 p. m. Tuesday, July 7. Guaranteed value, $1,000, of which $200 to the second and $100 to the third horse. Weights to be announced Monday, July 6. Winners after weights are announced to carry 5 pounds penalty. 1 mile.

The Anaconda Handicap. Value $2,000.
